Procedure for conducting consultations for the system's entrance examinations

Two remote consultation sessions are held prior to the entrance exam:

- A technical session (regarding the exam format/procedure);
- A session covering the general academic subject or field of study.

Conference links will be available on the NUST MISIS website and sent to applicants via the email address provided during registration.

Dates for consultations, entrance exams, and appeals

<https://misis.ru/applicants/admission/baccalaureate-and-specialty/list/schedule/>

Dates for Master's programs

<https://en.misis.ru/academics/masters-english/exams/>

Dates for postgraduate programs

https://misis.ru/applicants/admission/postgraduate/vstupitel_nyeispytaniya/schedule/

During entrance examinations and the review of examination papers, applicants are prohibited from

- Use photo, audio, or video equipment during the exam (except for equipment used by the proctoring system);
- Use reference materials or written notes;
- Use any additional communication devices, electronic computing devices, or other means of storing and transmitting information;
- Leave the webcam's field of view;
- Change equipment settings or lower the microphone sensitivity;
- Enlist the assistance of third parties;
- Grant third parties access to the equipment;
- Use text authored by others—whether in print or electronic format—without a full citation of the source (plagiarism);
- Read the written entrance exam questions aloud or comment on them;
- Open unrelated browser tabs, unless required by the proctoring system.

Rules of Conduct During the Entrance Examination

- The applicant must remain at their workstation while taking the entrance exam;
- During the time allotted for the entrance exam, the applicant may leave their workstation (exit the room) for a total duration of no more than 5 (five) minutes; video monitoring continues during this time;
- If video monitoring is interrupted or lost, the applicant is responsible for taking measures to restore it;
- The applicant must resolve any network connectivity issues that arise;
- If the applicant reconnects, their identity will be verified again;
- Access to the exam materials closes automatically once the allotted time for the entrance exam expires;
- The exam cannot be restarted once completed;
- Results may be annulled if violations regarding the conduct of the remote entrance exam are detected;
- In the event of a delay in connecting to the entrance exam, the applicant may be permitted to participate provided they are in contact with the technical support team and the delay does not exceed 30 minutes from the exam's start time; the time allotted for completing the task will not be extended.

Failure to participate in the entrance examination for a valid reason

- illness;
- technical malfunctions during the use of remote technologies originating on the side of NUST MISIS;
- other documented reasons.
- Requests to reschedule an exam, accompanied by documentary evidence of the reasons, must be submitted no later than the day of the entrance examination using the inquiry form.

Contact information

Regarding entrance examinations

- Applications are reviewed by the Admissions Committee, and authorization is issued to take the entrance examination on the reserve day.

Technical glitch

In the event of a technical equipment failure or an internet outage during the entrance examination—provided the issue is not the applicant's fault—the applicant is permitted to retake the exam on a scheduled reserve day.

If a technical failure occurs, the applicant must immediately notify the Admissions Committee—on the day of the examination and no later than 18:00 Moscow time—that they are unable to continue the exam, using the following contact form: <https://forms.yandex.ru/u/64b79e0c73cee72db5509706/>

The NUST MISIS Admissions Committee reviews an applicant's request within one day of receipt; if a technical failure not caused by the applicant is confirmed, the applicant is permitted to take the entrance exam on a reserve date.

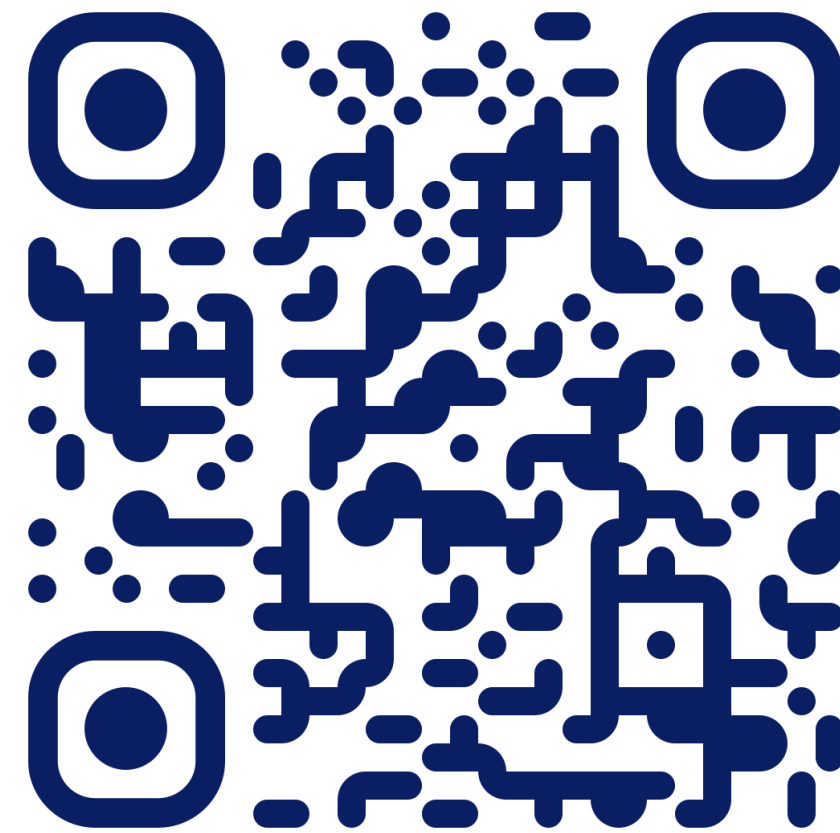

All disputed cases are reviewed by the Admissions Committee on an individual basis.
